MEZHBUZH YEARLY

THE TRIP OF A LIFETIME

VISITING THE TZADDIKIM

BY TZVI KOENIG

Goodness, what can I say? Last years trip to Ukraine was really something else; a true gevaldige zach. I highly suggest everyone to seriously consider getting involved or at least speak to Rav Fischer or Moshe Perlstein. I personally remember the decision making to be quite difficult. BH after going over it with my rebbeim (and Moshe Perlstein), i signed up with confidence.

The trip itself was so well done and proffesionally organzied, you would think Yossi should be a travel agent full time! In all seriousness, it couldnt have gone smoother. Between seeing the holy sights, timing food and sleep, this trip gets a 10/10. Now, visiting the kevarim was the real meat and potatoes. Exposig oneself to the holy neshamos that manifest by the kevarim makes such an impression that could literally help bring us closer to where we wanna be in our lives. Don't miss out on this incredible experience! See you in Mezhbuzh!

A STAMPLER'S EXPERIENCE

BY MEIR FOSTER

That old Ukrainian lady told me that it wasn't shatnez but I knew something was wrong when I couldn't chap the תוספות the next day. I wasn't sure how many white shirts to bring, because I was gonna wear a coat the whole day anyway and therefore I didn't have to put up that image. After a long bus ride I woke up and went to sleep for a long bus ride. The bus ride was very bumpy. תיקונים. It was crazy how I woke up and went back to sleep for a long bus ride. I never chapped the משל "life is a bumpy road" until the corner of my של ראש almost got chipped when my head hit the seat in front of me. After a 14 hour bus ride (I kid you not the bus driver never ever went to sleep, and a hour into first Seder I'm already plotzing) we got to the בעל התניא's kever. I'll be מודה that I felt the electricity at the kever (especially when they evened it out with a couple of litvish niggunim. 7 hours later.. we got to Reb Levi Yitzchak. 4 2/3 after that we got to Mezhbuzh. What a מחיה with those warm mikvahs (Louie Scheiner ממש hooked it up for the עולם) Ahhhhhh who could forget the Shabbos at the בעל שם טוב but then again who could remember it (vodka is cheaper than water). After seeing it all we were on the way to uman. Seeing it for the first in real life and not just on WhatsApp statuses (of your friends that always try to push you to come for ראש השנה) really made all the difference. We learn a lot of chassidish תורה in yeshiva and frequently quote Reb Nachman, but to actually be at his kever with the Rosh Yeshiva and the guys was something else. Shoutout to Yossi and Moshe I was never hungry.

CAN THIS MAKE ME CLOSER?

BY AKIVA KOLTAI

What does a kever mean?
 how do i connect to someone
 I don't know?
 Maybe, just maybe this is a person
 just like me
 who has climbed his ladder
 as I am climbing my own.
 This is a way to connect to the ultimate struggle.
 Reaching past what I think is my limit.
 Please, let me see the gadlus.
