

FISCHER'S

PARSHAT TETZAVEH • NO. 31

Winter Zman's in full swing.

New crossword puzzle - Fischer's in Color is back - Trivia time

Joy Breaks Barriers

Internal Happiness

with Rabbi Weinberger

Why does the Shulchan Aruch omit the laws of Mishenechnas Adar Marbim B'simcha (increasing in joy) and only delineate the laws of Mishenechnas Av Miatim B'simcha (diminishing in joy)?

The Bezler Rebbe fervently embraced 'heimish minhagim' with the same vigor as actual halacha. He contended that any unfulfillable halacha could be fulfilled through the study of the halachos. Since minhagim lacked formal halachic guidelines, he observed them with great zeal, recognizing no viable alternative through study.

Similarly, during Av and Tisha B'Av, if one struggles to experience sorrow, studying the halacha suffices as a substitute. However, the Shulchan Aruch refrains from detailing laws of increasing joy during Adar and Purim because he didn't want you to substitute learning with real internal happiness, it's something everyone must find for themselves.

Hey everyone!

Welcome to the new and improved Fischer's newsletter!! Any ideas or suggestions are much appreciated as it's a work of progress. Things will be updated and improved as feedback comes in. If you have any ideas for content, want to be interviewed, have meme-worthy pics, or want to submit a Dvar Torah, text me and we'll work something out. Stay tuned!!!

- Yossi

Student Spotlight

with Judah Corey

Q: What was the most impactful moment of your life?

A: Touching down in Israel for the first time. My excitement for yeshiva and having a chance for real inner growth. Being in Israel and a part of this amazing yeshiva gave me a new opportunity to reinvent myself and become a better person.

Q: If you could have a conversation with past Judah, what would you tell him?

A: I wouldn't tell him anything, I'm happy with the decisions I've made in my life. Life is a constant chance for growth and renewal.

Q: What's a quote or motto you live by daily?

A: "Ah mensch tracht un gut lacht." (Man plans and God laughs.) It's no use planning for every scenario and outcome leave it up to Hashem and he'll do what's best for you.

A Very Fischer's Crossword

DOWN

- [1] What time is Yesh open until on Fridays?
- [2] Leap year
- [4] The most valuable of proteins
- [6] Do you really work out if you don't do this?
- [7] What did the Jewish women give as Terumah?

ACROSS

- [3] They give a new meaning to family therapy
- [5] Scariest person in Yeshiva
- [8] Every Yeshiva guy knows how to play this instrument
- [9] Who do you call when your gemara is gone?
- [10] What mesechta is Yeshiva learning?

Meme of the Week

It's Time For Trivia

Feat. Reb Simcha Raba

Question 1: What is Reb Simcha Raba's last name?

1. Katz
2. Goldstein
3. Spira

Question 2: What is Reb Simcha Raba's hidden talent?

1. Rollerblading
2. Drawing
3. Origami

Question 3: What is Reb Simcha Raba's favorite band?

1. AC/DC
2. Pink Floyd
3. Metallica

INSTRUCTIONS

- Answers for the trivia and all other contests must be given by Monday morning.
- Everyone who completes the crossword receives one ticket for a 100-shekel raffle, which will take place Monday afternoon, so be sure to have your answer in on time.
- The top five captions for the Meme of the Week will be voted on by you guys on the yeshiva chat (rebbeis included), yup also on Monday afternoon.
- The author of the caption with the most votes will receive 100 shekels.

FISCHER'S IN COLOR FISCHER'S IN COLOR FISCHER'S IN COLOR

